

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1917.
CITY AND COUNTY.

BRERETS.

—Last Sunday of the year to-morrow.
—Prof. W. D. Parker is in the city greeting friends again.
—The merchants all feel happy in footing up their holiday sales.
—The Round Table meets to-night and promises to be unusually interesting.
—The case against Fred Holden has been continued until the 30th inst., and bail fixed at $500.
—Monday evening is the time fixed for the Temple of Honor anniversary. Let the hall be packed.
—A Bradford suit entitled "Wright vs. Wright" is occupying the attention of the Circuit Court to-day.
—Mrs. Noon's entertainment which is set for the 12th of January is to be her last here. The arrangements being made are such that it will surely be a befitting close to the worthy work done by her.

—The thermometer at 7 o'clock yesterday morning stood at 19 degrees below and at 7 o'clock this morning at 26 degrees above. A difference of 45 degrees in twenty-four hours. Something of a change.

—J. J. Edwards this afternoon complained of Fritz Schwartz in the Police Court, charging him with stealing a portable forge last July. Schwartz denied the charge and the case was continued until next Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hayward arrived this morning from Decorah, Iowa, bringing with them the remains of their little Edith. The funeral will take place at the residence of Mr. Stephen Chase to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—The funeral of John Griffin, son of Michael Griffin, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, at St. Patrick's church. The members of St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society are requested to meet at their hall at 1:30 o'clock, to attend in as body.

—The Y. M. C. A. of this city, have arranged for a course of interesting and popular lectures to be given by eminent men, the first to be delivered by Rev. Galusha Anderson, D. D., President of the University of Chicago, Friday evening, January 10th, 1918. Subject, "The Chinese Question."

—A case from Milton came before Justice Brooks this morning the victim being Anstie McCumber, who was charged with the larceny of some gloves, a silver ring, a silk handkerchief and some other small articles from C. H. Palmer. McCumber pleaded guilty and was called on to pay a fine, which with the costs amounted to $15.12.

—The promenade concert to be given under the direction of Prof. T. S. Boston, at Cannon's hall, Tuesday evening, January 6, is to be novel, and will doubtless prove enjoyable. Harry Anderson's band is to furnish the music, and the tickets have been placed at only two shillings. Four numbers have been arranged for the promenade, and eight for the dances. Stick a pin in that date so as to remember it.

—Daniel Johnson, of Evansville, was in the city to-day and renewed his annual subscription to the Gazette for the 37th time. In August, 1845, Levi Alden went to Mr. Johnson's farm, on his round soliciting subscribers, and there found him on top of a wheat stack. At that time and place he first subscribed for the Gazette, and it has been a constant visitor to his household since, his children having grown up with it as an almost ever-present companion. Mr. Johnson is thinking of taking a trip to the mountains for his health shortly after the New Year, and if so he will take the Gazette along to keep him posted as to home affairs.

—Mr. Wilbur Saxe, of this city, has the agency of the Mutual Protection Association of Wisconsin. This Association has its home office in Janesville. It is on the cooperation plan, each member paying $2.00 on the death of a member, and with a full division furnishes an indemnity of $2,000. The incorporate members are men of the highest standing in the State, and we have no hesitation in saying that its business will be conducted honestly and with ability. The moral and financial standing of its incorporate members inspired confidence at the start, and we expect soon to see this Association firmly established in the confidence of the people. We wish Mr. Saxe abundant success.—Whitehouse Register.

TRAVELERS, stop at the Astor House, New York.

A MORNING FIRE.

The residence of Calvin Hall about three miles West of Milton Junction was burned this morning together with contents causing a loss of about $600. Insured in the town company. The family were away at the time, and the cause of the blaze is unknown.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY FARRINGTON & STEVENSON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 1 degree below zero; and at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 17 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 24 degrees below, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 31 degrees above. Clear.

The indications to-day are, for the lake region, falling barometer, stationary or higher temperature, cloudy weather, with snow, and south and west winds.

HEROIC WEDDINGS.

Nothing daunted by the cold weather, Rev. Mr. Jones had two merry wedding parties at his house Christmas day. As will be seen in our marriage notices, Mr. Elmer E. Nye and Miss Julia M. Powers were one pair. They rode from Alton accompanied by the bride's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Powers, also of Alton.

Following them came Mr. Roscoe Merrill and Miss Alice Flint, who drove all the way from Brooklyn, Green county, a distance of nearly twenty-five miles. They were accompanied by three other merry couples. The ceremony over they returned in the afternoon to take part in appropriate festivities in the evening at Brooklyn. Mr. Merrill has grown up in Porter, and is engaged this winter in teaching the county his permanent home. This heroic beginning promises much for the future, and we wish them much of life's joy.

THE REASON WHY.

We started for the depot, at exactly half past eight.
All in such commotion for fear we might be late.
We found the caboose standing solemnly on the track.
Waiting for more cars to fill up the great lack;
When informed of no great hurry, Pedro was the same.
Disputing the twenty-one points with each other just the same;
The poor weary passengers with sleep and drink o'ercome,
Were stretched upon the benches, they were not to blame.
We left the train at midnight still standing on the track,
We were so disgusted we thought we would all come back;
Our minds were filled with visions of the pleasures we had lost.
The mishap of the engine our three hours' time had cost;
And as we toddled homeward, our feelings were expressed,
We were wiser mortals than we think you ever guessed.

GARRY'S SENTENCE.

Richard Garry, who was found guilty of larceny, was this morning sentenced by Judge Conger to pay a fine of $1 and costs, the latter amounting to over $73. The fine was paid, cash down. The Judge took occasion in reviewing the case to speak sharply about the laxity of the authorities in allowing the saloon ordinances to be violated, by drinking places being kept open after 11 o'clock at night, and by liquor being sold to minors. He gave a talk, which the aldermen should have been present to hear, in regard to giving licenses, and in refusing to revoke them when the law had been violated.

THE OLIVE BRANCH.

Last evening Olive Branch lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen held their election which resulted in the following choice:

Master Workman—E. J. Kent.
Grand Foreman—Wm. Marsden.
Overseer—W. G. Wheelock.
Guide—N. C. Baker.
Recorder—Charles E. Church.
Financier—C. W. Trott.
Receiver—Fred Sonnenborn.
Inside Warden—William Hyzer.
Outside Warden—Peter J. Lennartz.
Representatives to Grand Lodge—O. W. Nowlan and Herman Buchholz. Alternate—A. J. Roberts.
Trustee for Eighteen Months—A. C. Kent.

The introduction of the Harris & Smith Safety Lamp, which is now sold by most lamp dealers, has undoubtedly been the means of saving many lives and much valuable property, which would have been destroyed but for its use.

FUN AND ART.

A unique and pleasing entertainment was given to the children yesterday afternoon at All Souls church, it being by W. M. R. French, Secretary of the Academy of Design, in Chicago. By means of his rapid and life-like crayonings he showed to the hundreds of sparkling eyes, the story of the "Piper of Hamelin." The little folk enjoyed it hugely and at the close were treated to a feast of good things in the rooms below where eatables and sweetmeats were bountifully spread for them.

In the evening Mr. French again appeared at All Souls church and gave a lecture on "The Wit and Wisdom of the Crayon." His sketches were indeed remarkable for the speed with which he dashed them off, and for the striking vividness which a few strokes of his masterly hand gave two most pleasing entertainments, and all who had the pleasure of hearing him and seeing his crayonings will gladly welcome him to Janesville again, whenever he may find it convenient to come here.

CRYSTAL TEMPLE OF HONOR.

DECEMBER 29, 1917.

All is now in readiness for a grand social gathering at Temple hall on the occasion of their fourth anniversary on Monday evening next. Short speeches from our best speakers, songs from our best singers, and music by our best musicians—including Charlie Patterson—the whole to conclude with an exhibition drill by members of the star military company of the West, the Janesville Guards, and all for 10 cents. Tickets for sale at Wall King's.

After the social, those who desire to do so, are invited to join in a social dance on the canvassed floor, which the ladies say is "perfectly lovely"—no noise and no dust. Anderson's band will furnish the music. To all our friends, including every member of the Temple, come and give us a good send off for another year. Badges for the dance may be had at the hall. Price, fifty cents.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

Miss Minnie Holdredge, whom all here know or know of, gave an entertainment at Watertown last Friday evening, of which the Gazette of that place speaks as follows:

"On last Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Rose Hogan, the S. R. C. indulged themselves with one of the finest literary treats ever given in this city. Miss Minnie Holdredge, a graduate of the Boston School of Oratory, was engaged to give an entertainment before the members of the club; and her finely rendered selections from a variety of authors, won the warm and sympathetic admiration of every one present. The evidence of close application and high culture, coupled with her youth, amiability and attractiveness, elicited from one of the members of the club the very logical expression, 'What a happy combination.' Her keen conception of character, and the broad range of her clear melodious voice, reverts the attention with fascination that is refreshing to the soul, and makes the heart yearn for a higher and nobler standard of true worth and excellence. Her rendition of scenes from Black House and Henry VIII, was unexceptionable, while her patriotic, sentimental and humorous selections were given with a vim, pathos and energy that kept the com-members of the S. R. C. were fortunate in securing Miss Holdredge, and that she was appreciated by them needs only a mention of her name to bring forth volumes in praise. She will come again? We hope so—and appear in public.

SERVICES OF THE SANCTUARIES.

How the Pulpits and Pews are to be Occupied To-morrow.

The following are the notices of the religious services at the several churches of the city to-morrow and during the coming week:

CHEER FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas Entertainment.

For the past week and until the last song was sung last evening in Jappa's hall, the air was rife with rumor and expectancy about the Christmas doings of this grand good school. It was known that Mr. Kinney had the music for the occasion under his care and dreams, by day and by night, to the exclusion of business and everything else. It was also positively known that Mr. Thor Judd was conjuring up something the like of which had never been seen in this town on occasions of similar nature. Well, last night proved a bountiful realization and rumor was matched. The hall was full and all aglow with fervid jollity. Goodies for over two hundred children were prepared—candies, oranges and Prang's best illuminated cards, while, as always with these Presbyterian people, little strangers were not forgotten in the feasting.

"Do you Presbyterian people believe as you always did?" was asked of one of the ladies the other day. This question should become acquainted with the Sabbath school and learn thereby how the ancient truths are held and expressed by each succeeding generation; because intense loyalty and enthusiasm is their badge and mark here.

The songs and music last evening were in proof of this. The musical programme was thorough, and lacked in nothing.

THE PROGRAMME.

1. Singing—"Jesus, Star of the Morning."
 2. Recitation—"What I've got in my pocket," by little Master Ashcraft, and he looked the possessor of a boy's mysterious pocket.
 3. Singing—"Beautiful Star."
 4. Recitation—Miss Ella Hanson; her piece was "Christmas Jingles," which with the echo was very nice.
 5. Singing—"The Babe of Bethlehem."
 6. Infant class—"Singing the Creed."
- This was one of the choice things of the affair. Some fifty or sixty little tots were arranged on the platform and under the eye and drill of their beloved teacher, Mrs. Kinney, sang and gestured together in a way that captivated every beholder. This infant class is the great interest centre of this school. The following took part in the Creed last evening: Lula Shearer, Annie Olson, Nettie Able, Emma Hanson, Ella Hanson, Bettie Pierson, C. Pierson, Katie Jackson, Mattie E. Sherman, Della Buob, Mamie Zienow, Mattie Kinney, Lucy Larson, May Riel, Della Pierson, Emma Bender, Bertha Harshland, Mary Nisbit, Martha Kirk, Susie Tillapaugh, Gertrude Flagler, Nora Tillapaugh, Lucy Olson, Mary Olson, Aggie Shearer, Ida Nichols, Annie Samson, Ada Wilson, Maggie Geddes, Belle Scott, Mamie Bauman, Kate Bauman, Annie Buob, Lillie Buob, May Paulson, Mamie Totten, Jessie Shearer, Eddie Shottell.

Charlie Hemmingway, John Cleland, John Bauman, Henry Baldwin, Bertie Watson, Lou Mead, W. J. Blue, Robert Jackson, Mac Mount, Bertie Ashcraft, George Hinkley, George Totten, Willie Duob, Willie Sampson, Willie Bauman, Willie Nesbitt, Harry Rager, Eddie Bauman, Sam Dodge, Herbert Totten, George Kinney. There were others whose names we were unable to obtain, but a little band of little enthusiasts they were as a body, full of promise as they were full of the joyousness of the event last night.

7. Recitation—"Heel and Toe."—Miss Lillie Raymond, who threw her voice and speech into the stockings, which, like the children, were waiting for Santa Claus.

8. Singing—"Ring out the Bells!"

9. Christmas Play and Tableau, enacted by the Misses Draper and Master Louie, little Misses Katie Walker, and Jennie Geddes, Mattie Kinney and her brother George. Here is where the Ancient Mystery came in, Mr. Lin Kinney as Kris Kringle, and the audience saw the scene as never before.

10. Mr. George Gookins then sang a very fine solo—"Courtin'."

11. Duett, Mr. Orville Wright and his boy Louie, who hardly bigger than a bow-string, gave promise then of music all through him.

12. Then the Christmas tree came into view as the curtain rang, and in the glare of the red light the burning candles gave an exceeding weird conception of this child's tree of trees.

13. Singing glory to God in the highest, and the audience banded up to meet the weather out doors.

Dr. Barrows furnished the artificial fire logs that made the fire place as real as life—just as Fannie Draper herself seemed a real grandma. Some mysterious friend sent a huge package of oranges to supplement the good things, and this was the end of Christmas 1879 to this perfect school.

A PLEASANT GATHERING.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis assembled at their residence on Locust street, on Wednesday evening, December 24, to celebrate Christmas. A tree loaded with handsome presents stood in the parlor. Santa Claus having so many previous engagements, did not arrive until nine o'clock. The first part of the evening was devoted to games and social chat. There were readings by Mrs. George Willis, and Misses Lottie Griffin and Cora Cheney. Uncle Cheney also gave an entertainment in the way of reading. There were recitations by Clara and Ada Cheney, and music, instrumental and vocal, by different members of the company. Misses Allie Child and Clara Cheney deserve much praise for their beautiful instrumental duet. After Santa Claus arrived, the presents of 'which comprised both the useful and ornamental' were distributed. Among them we noticed two handsome arm chairs for father and mother Gibson, a beautiful beaver shawl, from father and mother, Pair silver vases, from Addie and Danie Skelly. Pair bronze vases, from Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson. For Miss Ella Willis, framed portraits of father and mother, and pair of chromes for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Willis. Silver casket for Mr. and Mrs. Clark Popple, pair of slippers for grandpa Cheney, from Clara and Ada's "Cannon" for Mr. Will Boyd, of Harmony. Beautiful toilet set and mats, for Mrs. W. W. Willis, and other presents too numerous to mention. Among the guests we noticed Mr. George W. Willis, of Belle Plaine, Iowa, an engineer on the Iowa Division of the C. & N. W. R. R. He formerly resided in Janesville and will be remembered by many. Refreshments were served about 10 o'clock, and some cast filled up the remainder of the evening. A little after twelve they separated wishing each other a very merry Christmas, and many more to come.
